MEMORANDUM

DATE: January 27, 2017
TO: Members of the Senate State Government Committee
FROM: Senator Folmer, Chairman
RE: Upcoming Senate State Government Committee Activity

The Senate State Government Committee will be holding a committee meeting on Tuesday January 31, 2017 at 12:30p.m. in Room 8E-A.

The bills originally set for consideration at the January 25 cancelled meeting will now be considered at this time. Those bills include:

Senate Bill 9 (Stefano)

Enacts the Proof of Citizenship for Receipt of Public Benefits Act.

Senate Bill 166 (Eichelberger)

Enacts the Protection of Public Employee Wages Act.

Amendment A00028

Clarifies the term "legislative purpose."

Senate Bill 167 (Wagner)

An amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania prohibiting the collection of membership dues and political contributions for protection of paychecks of certain public employees.

Amendment A00013

Ensures consistency with SB 501 as passed by the Senate last session (now Senate Bill 166).

Senate Bill 169 (Laughlin)

Amends Title 65 (Public Officers) to provide for requirements of lobbyists, lobbying firms and the Department of State.

CC: Senator Eichelberger
Senator Wagner
Senator Laughlin
