

- Open up the mapping portal so citizens can submit maps that can be viewed by committee members and the public.
- Use the values outlined in the Legislative and Congressional Redistricting Act when evaluating maps OR share with the public the criteria and values they will use to evaluate maps before maps are drawn and presented.
- Ask that committee members be reminded that FDPAs testified at the first hearing and their comments should be seriously considered.

Thanks -

Garry Brinton

Cell: 717.571.5202