

I encourage open and transparent public hearings throughout PA to consider new congressional and state legislative maps. The values reflected in the maps should be in the best interest of voters, not incumbent elected officials. The maps recommended by FDPA and other nonpartisan groups are an excellent starting point.

John and Fran Cornelius

Perkasie PA